

FOOD FACILITIES RECEIVING CERTIFICATE OF MERIT

The Food Service Facility Certificate of Merit is designed to encourage food service operators to maintain standards of public health higher than just a passing inspection. The certificate is issued only on routine inspections and represents the conditions at the time of the inspection. Criteria used to determine if a certificate is issued are:

1. A Certified Food Service Manager is on the premises;
2. There are initially no critical violations (immediate health hazards; and
3. There are no significant violations with testing thermometers, personal hygiene, sanitation of equipment and utensils, storage and use of toxic items, presence of insects or rodents, hand sinks usable, and cross contamination.
